Featured speaker:

An award-winning author and educator, Debbie S. Miller has explored and written about Alaska's wildlife for more than four decades. She is the author of "Midnight Wilderness: Journeys in Alaska's Arctic National Wildlife Refuge," and "On Arctic Ground: Tracking Time Through Alaska's National Petroleum Reserve."

Prince William Sound has the highest concentration of tidewater glaciers in America, with a coastal wilderness like no other. Join author Debbie S. Miller on an exploration of this magnificent and dramatic environment, shared by bears, salmon, sea otters, humpback whales, puffins and bald eagles. Debbie spent five years paddling and hiking along numerous fjords, collaborating with photographer Hugh Rose to create a book about this vulnerable, extraordinary place: "A Wild Promise: Prince William Sound." Learn how you can help protect one of Alaska's beautiful wild places.

Copies of Debbie's book are available for purchase and signing following the presentation.
